Vessel 250 Feet Long and Sank Quickly -- Another Victim Off New York Harbor.

(By Associated Press)
New York, June 5.—A schooner carrying 156 passengers and 94 of the crew of the Carolina, sunk by a submarine, has arrived. The survivors say the submarine was painted sea green and was almost invisible and was 250 feet long. The vessel sank quickly.

The U. S. schooner Samuel C. Merger is the newest victim. She was sunk Sunday off New York. Eleven of the crew were brought in.

Concentration of American naval forces was begun off Maryland on a report that the subs had moved farther south after Sunday.

SIXTEEN DROWNED.

(By Associated Press)
Lewes, Delaware, June 5.—Sixteen of the 35 passengers who were in a motor boat of the steamer Carolina, landed here today, were drowned during a severe thunderstorm Sunday night. While the boat was drifting about seeking to rescue others the motor boat capsized several times but the survivors managed to right the launch and kept it afloat.

WIRELESS OPERATOR'S VALOR EXCEEDED WISDOM.

(By Associated Press)
New York, June 5.—"Don't use wireless and we won't shoot," the submarine captain told the Carolina's officers. Edwin Vogel, the 19-year-old wireless operator, defiantly sent an S. O. S. and was about to answer messages when the Carolina captain intervened to prevent the sacrifice of the lives of passengers.

After abandoning the Carolina the survivors in lifeboats began whistling the "Star Spangled Banner." The tune was taken up by all the boats and women joined in singing the words. Few women were hysterical. The more courageous rebuked the others and kept order. The survivors were unable to understand why the new commanding officer of San Juan training camp was left unmolested. All but ten of the 218 passengers of the Carolina are accounted for.

BELGIANS CIRCLE THE GLOBE TO AGAIN FIGHT GERMANS.

The speaking division of the committee on public information has issued the following:
On May 15, 1918, a detachment of 339 Belgian volunteers, who have been fighting on the Russian front, arrived in San Francisco. They were met there by the official representatives of their own country and by special missions sent from Washington by the British, French and our own war department. At the request of the Belgian legation, the committee on public information arranged to give the larger cities along their route of travel a chance to see and do honor to these Belgian heroes.

In January, 1916, they joined the forces of Russia on the eastern front. They fought in the campaign around Lemberg and continued to fight with conspicuous gallantry through Russia's shifting political moods until revolutions and counter revolutions, conflicting orders and the breakdown of the Russian forces made fighting no longer possible. But they are not through fighting.

They are on the way to fight for Belgium once more. It has been a long journey. They have made their way from Galicia through Siberia to Yokohama, across the Pacific to San Francisco, across the United States to the eastern coast, and now await a boat that will carry them back to their native land, where once more they shall make the Hun feel the determination and courage of men who fight for their homes.

REGISTRATION OF MEN TWENTY ONE YEARS

Four Clerks Busy at the Local Exemption Board This Morning.

Registration of the young men who have become 21 years of age during the past year, is going on at the offices of the local exemption board here today, on the anniversary of registration day of 1917. The young men, white and black, now that they understand the workings of the selective draft act, are seemingly not holding back in the least, for it was found necessary owing to the early rush to put in a fourth registration clerk, County Judge Maloney undertaking the work there himself. The other clerks are E. H. P. Bain, A. K. Brown and Will McCulloch. They were on hand at 7 o'clock and will be required by the law to remain at their posts until 9 o'clock tonight, thus giving all an opportunity to register.

With the signing by President Wilson of the bill and proclamation designating Wednesday, June 5, as the day on which all men who have reached the age of 21 since last June 5 shall register for military service, Provost Marshal General Crowder's office immediately began preparations for the enrollment of the men. Instead of using the election machinery as was done last year, Gen. Crowder will call upon the local boards. It is believed that their experience during the past year has peculiarly fitted them to handle the new registration economically and efficiently.

General Crowder has estimated that probably three-quarters of a million men will be added to the American army by the new registration. His estimate is based on the fact that almost 10,000,000 men registered last year. This number included all between the ages of 21 and 31, and statistics collected by General Crowder's office show that a little more than 10 per cent of these men were 21 years old. On that basis it is estimated by draft officials that the total registration will exceed 1,000,000, of which 750,000 will be available for military service. This makes proper allowances for physical defectives, exemptions because of dependents, and other bars to military service.

The law provides that every young man in the United States who has reached the age of 21 years since June 5, 1917, or will reach that age on or before June 5, 1918, must register. The only exceptions are in the cases of men who are actually in active military or naval service. All male persons, citizens or aliens, born between June 6, 1896, and June 5, 1917, inclusive, except officers and enlisted men of the regular army, navy and marine corps and the national guard and naval militia while in federal service, and officers in the officers reserve corps and enlisted men in the enlisted reserve corps while in active service, must register. Some misunderstanding has been caused by the publication of reports that medical and divinity students need not register, and General Crowder has issued the following statement:

"Divinity students and students of medicine must register. Under the terms of the law signed by President Wilson on Monday students who were preparing for the ministry in recognized theological or divinity schools and students who were preparing for the practice of medicine and surgery in recognized medical schools on May 20, 1918, are exempt from the draft. However, the law does not relieve such students from the duty of registering on Wednesday, June 5. Registration comes first, exemption afterwards. It is absolutely necessary that these students register."

Anyone who is sick today and unable to present himself in person at the office of the local board may send some competent friend, who may be deputized by the clerk to prepare his card.

It is not anticipated that many will be delinquent. It is hoped that none will be, but for those who do fail to perform their duty congress has provided a very heavy penalty. Failure to register on June 5 constitutes a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for one year, and may result, furthermore, in the loss of valuable rights and privileges and immediate induction into military service.

There is no need to fear such retirement now. The Marne will not again be a turning point, he said.

GENERAL HENRY ASKEW IS DEAD IN AUSTIN, AGED 73.

Austin, June 5.—Death claimed General Henry G. Askew at his home in this city, at the age of 73 years. He was a native of East Texas and spent his boyhood and early manhood in Hopkins and Harrison counties, finally moving to Tyler, where he lived a number of years. In that city he was a bank cashier and later auditor of the Cotton Belt railroad. In 1891 when the railroad commission of Texas was organized he was elected auditor of that body in which position he continued until about 12 years ago, when he was appointed accountant for the principal railroads of Texas with offices in Austin. When a mere boy General Askew enlisted in the confederate army and served during the greater part of the war. He had taken much interest in the United Confederate Veterans and a few years ago was made a brigadier general of that organization.

Amsterdam, June 5.—"When I see such horrors of war rendering thousands of people homeless and converting flourishing stretches of the French country into hideous deserts, the thought is forced upon me: What suffering and misery France might have spared herself and her people if the peace offer of Dec. 12, 1916, had not been so criminally rejected," said Emperor William while journeying through the devastated Marne region, according to Karl Rosner, the war correspondent of the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger.

TELLS OF HUN ZARBARITY AND ESCAPE WITH PLANS.

Chicago, June 5.—A graphic story of his capture by a German submarine when the liner Arcadia was torpedoed last November and his later escape from a prison camp after he had killed two sentries and stolen plans of the harbors of Ostend and Zeebrugge, was given by Henry Priessman on his arrival in Chicago today to enlist as an ambulance driver for the Red Cross.

Priessman was recently given an honorable discharge from the navy because of a wound he received when he dived from the deck of the submarine which attacked the Arcadia to rescue his brother.

"After ordering the six surviving sailors of the Arcadia below," he said, "the submarine was submerged and only 11 of the 50 civilians on her deck managed to reach a life raft. I was kept a prisoner on the craft without food or drink for 60 hours, during which time the Germans tried to force me to give them information by winding wire about my body and tightening it."

"I was taken to Ostend as a prisoner and for 72 days I was held there. During that time I became acquainted with two English officers and four American soldiers who were taken in the first drive. On Feb. 22 we made our escape in German uniforms. I stole some plans from a German officer and later I turned the papers, which were the plans of the harbors of Ostend and Zeebrugge, over to the naval authorities and 11 days later the great raid was made."

"One of the English officers had cut a hole through the barbed wire entanglements surrounding our camp and through this we made our escape, after killing two sentries. We made our way across Belgium and Holland and thence to England."

PLANS TO ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS DISCUSSED AT MEETING TUESDAY

Committee to Devise Something on the Order of Hostess House -- Sunday Moving Pictures.

A committee composed of two persons from each church, the Woman's club, each of the lodges and other organizations who may desire to become identified in the movement was authorized at the conference of the people of Bryan last afternoon on the matter of providing entertainment for the soldiers at the college. The conference also went on record as being opposed to Sunday picture shows.

Rev. Dr. E. W. Solomon called the conference to order at the appointed hour, 4 o'clock, in the Carnegie library. R. O. Allen was elected chairman and M. A. Miller secretary. Rev. C. H. Storey stated that the object of the meeting was to provide for the entertainment of the soldiers, to effect an organization for the purpose, outline a policy for recreation and get an idea of the work to be done.

Secretary Firth of the college Y. M. C. A. was present and made a statement that the soldiers need entertainment only on Saturday and Sunday and as for the latter the college community provides a Bible school Sunday mornings, there are Sunday afternoon services, the soldiers have a chorus and a band, so that their Sunday mornings and part of their Sunday afternoons are taken care of. It remains then for Bryan to look out for them on Saturday.

He suggested that something on the order of a hostess house should be provided, and incidentally mentioned that these men average high, the meteorologists being about 90 per cent college graduates.

Chairman Allen and others stated that they were sure the sentiment of those present was for something on the order of a hostess house.

Upon motion of Dr. Solomon it was voted to ask each church, lodge and other organizations, such as the Woman's club and Red Cross to appoint a committee of two to co-operate with the entertainment committee of the Commercial club for the purpose of devising a plan of entertainment. Two soldiers were present and made members of the committee.

Robert Armstrong, George Hadley, C. L. Beason, Rev. J. J. Tatum and Messrs. Charlesworth and Twynner, soldiers, made talks during the course of the proceedings. Mrs. R. O. Allen and Mrs. L. L. McInnis agreed to the committee plan of action.

Dr. Solomon offered a resolution to this effect: "It is the sense of this meeting that it is opposed to Sunday moving pictures."

The soldiers, in speaking on this subject, said Sunday moving pictures are not required.

Chairman Geo. Adams of the Commercial club entertainment committee requests that all organizations interested turn in to him immediately the names of their committee that a meeting may be called of the whole committee at the very earliest time possible.

ONION CROP RECEIPTS CLOSE TO ONE MILLION.

Laredo, Tex., June 5.—Notwithstanding the announcement that the Bermuda onion crop in the Laredo section is pronounced a failure on account of the fact that the ravages of trip in the early part of the growing period and the inundation of the onion fields by the heavy rains at maturing time decreased the prospective yield from 3000 to approximately 1320 car loads, the growers of onions received gross for the crop shipped $750,000 to $1,000,000.

According to estimates the Laredo section shipped a total of 1320 car loads during the shipping season now ended. The cars contained from 500 to 700 crates of onions each, or an average of 620 crates to the car load. The price of onions varied during the season, but the average price is placed at $1 per crate and at the minimum figure the gross receipts would be in excess of $750,000.

The mother of the child was standing near and called to the child to come back as he started across the street and he turned to start back just as the car struck him.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT OF THE BRYAN WEEKLY EAGLE

Organized to Overthrow Government.

Testimony introduced in the trial of 112 leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World at Chicago shows that as terrorists they were running on about the level of the German militarist. In some respects they appear to have been superior to the Germans, in that as far as we have seen they did not ruthlessly and vulgarly attack women and children, although their song book would indicate their mental attitude to have been in that direction. Perhaps the only reason they were restrained was that American men have a way of punishing malefactors of this sort with hempen rope and these fellows have a longing to live, to live in idleness, to work when and as they please, to draw wages from capital until capital shall have been exhausted and then become communist owners, managers and operators of the plants formerly fostered and pushed with the aid of capital. The local branch in the vicinity of Globe, Arizona, was $1000 in debt and said it could use German gold, so while they rail out against capital they are willing to accept it. There have been frequent assertions that this was a German organization, but it appears to have been used by German agents for, while the organization seems to have had about 200,000 members, it was lacking in any set principles, pro-German or otherwise, except the one to destroy whatever was the property of another. They even threatened the United States government with destruction, and one of the speakers, according to testimony, declared in Texas that those who bought liberty bonds would never get them redeemed because the I. W. W. would repudiate all debts after the war, indicating that they expected to overthrow this government. When leaders were arrested the threat was made to tie up with strikes the mining interests of the west and north-west. This was to be "the workers' reply to military autocracy."

As workers they appear to have been wholly misnamed. They were slackers of the worst sort, according to this testimony. Witnesses have testified to placing spikes in planks to wreck sawmills, to driving iron stakes in grain fields for the purpose of breaking sickles, to destroying fruit and vegetable crops in California and Pacific states, to demanding a day of six hours with a half hour for lunch out of that and $6 a day pay, to using an inflammable oil to set fire to forests, to organized resistance to the draft and to announced intention to start a revolution if the draft law was enforced against the I. W. W. Even the army was to be invaded, and the food of the soldiers tampered with. Machinery in munitions factories was to be rendered inefficient, and other factories working on war materials of one kind and another were to have been entered and crippled by disloyal workmen. It was the fixed purpose of the I. W. W. to intimidate the authorities, and in one case a Kansas sheriff was actually put in jail.

None but the red flag was recognized, hence they are admittedly extreme socialists and anarchists. They would replace order with disorder, law with complete and unrestricted individualism, liberty with license and libertinism, ownership of property with no property rights whatever and justice and equality with a reign of terror. Sabotage was the weapon employed to terrorize the people and strike down the power of the government of the United States of America.

In considering the I. W. W., it is first of all necessary to understand their fundamental principle—the employer must go. It is equally necessary to understand that their word, agreement or contract is worthless—they frankly and officially announce as much. An employer dealing with an ordinary union may come to terms with the organization for a definite time and be certain that the terms of the agreement will be faithfully complied with. The reverse is the policy of the I. W. W. To agree with them as to wages, hours or working conditions today does not insure the employer against a strike tomorrow, and if he is not confronted by a strike he will have to contend with systematic sabotage, organized loafing and ingenious methods of causing him financial loss. No matter how high the wages, how short the day or how pleasant the working conditions—the I. W. W. is the relentless enemy of the employer. Nothing save the extermination of the employer and the overthrow of judicial and legislative government will satisfy him.

The I. W. W. is literally a revolutionary organization which had its inception in Chicago in 1901 when a group of radical labor leaders, under the leadership of Thomas J. Hagerty, editor of the official organ, and Clarence J. Smith, general secretary-treasurer of the American Labor Union, formed the organization by a combination of the Western Federation of Miners, the United Metal Workers, the American Labor Union and the Socialist Trade and Labor Alliance.

Eugene Debs was a warm supporter of the embryo organization and for some time after the Chicago convention made stirring appeals to the radical adherents to join the "One Big Union." However the party leaders became entangled in bitter controversies and in 1905 the Western Federation of Miners withdrew and three years later the Socialists and conservatives announced their dissolution of interests. The radicals opened up headquarters in Detroit and called the new radical branch the Detroit I. W. W.

The two organizations, though practically synonymous so far as principles are concerned, have been bitter implacable enemies. A deep-seated antipathy between both radical orders and the Socialist party, the "Legitimate Trade Unions," and the present form of government has prevailed since the forming of the two branches of the I. W. W.

A perusal of the I. W. W. platform (preamble) is sufficient to convince the most skeptical observer that the organization is founded on principles with tendencies bordering on anarchism, as the following excerpts will illustrate:

"The working class and the employing class have nothing in common; between these two a struggle must go on until the workers of the world organize as a class, take possession of the earth and the machinery of production and abolish the wage system—moreover—the trade unions aid the employing class into believing that the working men have interests in common with their employer. * * * instead of the conservative motto, 'a fair day's work for a fair day's pay,' we must inscribe on our banner the revolutionary watchword, 'abolition of the wage system.'"

According to the I. W. W. the employer no matter if a corporation, farmer, contractor or peanut vendor—if an employer, rich or poor, he has ceased to be a necessity in industrial or social life and is merely a superfluous parasite. They point out that any lasting agreement between the employer and employee is impossible. In fact the most basic and adhered to principle of the I. W. W. is that "Arbitration and permanent settlement cannot be countenanced by the organization." They declare there is no "good employer," they all look alike—there can be no peaceful pursuit of employment, no trace for the employer or society, nothing but relentless warfare through sabotage and strike till the present form of government is overthrown.

The I. W. W. are not pro-German but they are intensely anti-American and will go to any length and employ any means, right or wrong, to overthrow the government. They do not recognize any difference between the American government and the German government. They frankly say so, they boldly declare that they recognize no country, and only one flag—the red flag.

The senate recently passed a bill aimed at the I. W. W. and kindred organizations, making it a penitentiary offense to belong to any order preaching the overthrow of the present form of government. That patriotic body performed a most commendable service. That same bill will come before the house in a short time and to safeguard democracy it must pass without amendments.

If through the agency of a military disaster the workers of the country should become pessimistic as in the allied countries a year ago, the I. W. W. would inaugurate a revolution in this country as they did in Russia under the leadership of the I. W. W. counter-part, the Bolsheviks.

MAGNIFICENT GRAIN CROP HARVESTED IN BRAZOS THIS YEAR

From Friday's Daily Eagle
The wheat and oats crop of this county has jumped from nothing last year to very considerable proportions this year, and the yield promises to be immense. Ed Covey and Mr. Kirby have purchased a binder and thrasher and are serving the grain growers of the county. Mr. Covey has a fine crop of both on his farm northwest of the city, having 75 acres in oats and wheat, pictures of which were taken by County Agent Beason in company with District Agent Orms a few days ago. The stand was more than waist high. Since then Mr. Covey has begun cutting but has not started threshing. He says that the finest oats in this county are on the Seth Mooring place, these standing shoulder high, with full big heads and estimated by men from the North Texas grain regions to indicate a yield of 70 to 80 bushels to the acre. Mr. Mooring, however, will feed the oats in the sheaf. It is not likely that any of the grain grown in this county will ever find a market as the oats will be held for feed and wheat will go to the local mill and be converted into flour for the use of the growers themselves.

With proper steps taken against smut at planting time in the fall, it seems likely that the acreage to be planted this fall will be much greater and the yield next summer far heavier than this year.

Re-Classification of the Drafted Men

Under the direction of Major Townes, who has supervision of the selective draft law in Texas, county councils of defense are to take the classifications, investigate them and if changes in classifications are thought advisable report with recommendations to the district board in the matter of industrialists and to the local board in the matter of dependents. The council of defense last Saturday met and went over some of the lists and questionnaires, but did not make the investigations in the manner prescribed by Major Townes. The investigations are supposed to be thorough and evidence deduced sufficiently clear and strong and unmistakable that it might be used in court, if need be. In short, it is contemplated that a complete probe shall be made of each case of deferred classification. Another meeting of the council on this matter is to be held Saturday. The report that 100 men had been re-classified was an error to a large extent.

PAY YOUR BILLS.

(Forbes Magazine.)
The rich are often needlessly cruel to those who are not rich. Why, for example, don't wealthy people pay their bills when due? Talk with the tradesmen of any community composed partly of rich families, and you will find bitter complaints on this score. If some of these well-to-do delinquents stopped for a moment to think of the embarrassment they thus cause and what bitterness they thus engender toward their class they would act more considerately.

The subject deserves serious consideration for it will be the part of wisdom for the rich to do everything within their power to treat the rank and file of the people fairly and humanely. Many a small shopkeeper and other tradesman forms his unfavorable opinion of the rich solely because of the inconsiderate way they treat him. They get the impression that the rich do not care a rap for other people, that they feel privileged to do as they please, that they should worry whether those who serve them can meet their bills or not.

The trend toward socialism, toward anti-capitalism, toward harassment of the rich is ominous enough without being needlessly aggravated. And I know of no single factor which does more to bring the rich into disfavor than this contemptible habit of well-to-do property owners not paying their bills promptly.

NEGRO'S ENORMOUS WEALTH TOLD IN COURT.

From Saturday's Daily Eagle
Elijah Bradley was tried before a commission in the county court and adjudged insane yesterday. Elijah is in a delectable state of mind. He has worlds and worlds of money and quit his farm because, as he told his employer, he and his wife did not have to work any more. He also purchased two negroes in the county jail which he has converted into a palace with pearly gates and golden stairs, but he told on the witness stand that they had sent his slaves to the penitentiary. However, he owned others. Elijah got the idea some time ago that his relatives, who were trying to help him, were in fact his enemies, and he threatened their lives.

MAGNIFICENT GRAIN CROP HARVESTED IN BRAZOS THIS YEAR

From Friday's Daily Eagle
The wheat and oats crop of this county has jumped from nothing last year to very considerable proportions this year, and the yield promises to be immense. Ed Covey and Mr. Kirby have purchased a binder and thrasher and are serving the grain growers of the county. Mr. Covey has a fine crop of both on his farm northwest of the city, having 75 acres in oats and wheat, pictures of which were taken by County Agent Beason in company with District Agent Orms a few days ago. The stand was more than waist high. Since then Mr. Covey has begun cutting but has not started threshing. He says that the finest oats in this county are on the Seth Mooring place, these standing shoulder high, with full big heads and estimated by men from the North Texas grain regions to indicate a yield of 70 to 80 bushels to the acre. Mr. Mooring, however, will feed the oats in the sheaf. It is not likely that any of the grain grown in this county will ever find a market as the oats will be held for feed and wheat will go to the local mill and be converted into flour for the use of the growers themselves.

With proper steps taken against smut at planting time in the fall, it seems likely that the acreage to be planted this fall will be much greater and the yield next summer far heavier than this year.

Harvey Observed Day of Prayer

Harvey observed the day of humiliation and prayer, proclaimed by the president, with religious and patriotic services that began at 9 o'clock in the morning and were continued until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The morning was devoted to the religious features of the day's program, being given over to prayer and to addresses by Rev. J. J. Tatum and Rev. Bullock on humiliation, and its place in this war, the need of it in winning the war. In the afternoon a community service flag with 19 blue and one silver stars was placed on the wall of the auditorium of the school building. Rev. Tatum delivered the principal address and Miss Elizabeth Clifton recited "Hooverizing."

A large crowd was present and was intensely interested.

PERFORMED ANNUAL THEFT.

Four young Bryan negroes were arrested and taken before the district court Wednesday where they entered pleas of guilty to theft and were fined by Judge Morehead. They performed the annual happening. Practically every year during the final ball at the college town negroes go to the college, ransack the dormitories, take clothes that suit them and march away. Usually their capture is an easy matter, but the practice is annoying.

USE NO WHEAT.

Dallas, May 31.—Beginning this week and continuing until the next harvest, the patriotism of Dallas hotels and restaurants will undergo the "acid" test. Seventy-five hotel and restaurant men have agreed to dispense with wheat altogether during that time. Corn bread only is to be served. The only instance in which victory bread is to be used is in sandwiches which are to be sent out. Other sandwiches will consist of corn muffins.

POTATO MARKETING HELP.

County Food Administrator C. L. Beason is in receipt of communication from the food administration stating that they are endeavoring to assist the farmers in marketing their potatoes to the very best advantage.

Mr. Beason asks that all who have potatoes to dispose of please notify him at once, stating the amount they have and whether or not sacks will have to be provided.

CARROLL LIKES SEA AND WRITES MOST OPTIMISTIC LETTER

Mrs. Della Wooten, mother of J. P. Carroll, a Bryan boy now serving in the United States navy, has just received the following letter from him, which will be of interest to all Americans, in that to some extent it gives a line on the conditions in France and the daily lives of our boys who have gone to fight the hated, unspeakable Hun:

U. S. S. Maui, May —, 1918.

Dear Mamma and All:
Well, I know you think it is about time I am writing to you. We "shoveled" into the good old U. S. A. this morning at sunrise and believe me this was one sailor who was glad to get back.

Mamma, I certainly have been having some wonderful times since I left the U. S. A., April 16, 1918, and wish that I was at home so I could tell you all about them.

We left on the 16th with eight other transports and we were only out a few days when one of our engines went bad. We dropped out of the convoy and started back. We traveled for about 12 hours and they found out they could fix the engine, so we turned around and started back. That was on Sunday morning. The afternoon of the same day two of our boys went overboard. We lowered the life boats and picked one of them up, but the other one, a young kid from Boston, we could not find. I surely did hate to see him go over. He and I were close friends, in fact, I liked him better than any one on the boat. I was wearing his wrist watch at the time he went over (a $20 Waltham), as the main spring in mine was broken. I carried it to the executive officer and he said for me to keep it as he didn't have any close relatives to send it to.

We caught up with the convoy about 2300 miles out. We left St. Nazaire, France, on the 14th of this month, and went to Le Croisic. We left there on the 16th for the states. We headed in a strong gale nearly all the way. About three days out from France the same old engine went bad on us again and we came on into New York, making about 12 knots when we should have been making 20. A week ago this afternoon we were in a strong wind and the sea was rolling high. One of the soldier "nuts" that we brought back with us jumped overboard. Eight of us lowered one of the fast motor boats and started after him. We hunted for him for two hours but didn't have any luck. Several life buoys were thrown to him and we thought perhaps he might have caught one of them, was the reason we stayed out so long. Our boat was so small we did well to keep afloat ourselves in such a wind. We all had a good salt bath but I don't think I gave any of us a cold, at least it didn't me. You see we had plenty of luck, but still not as bad as it might have been.

Mamma, the people in the states don't realize what hard times are until they spend a time in France. I met a young lady in the Y. M. C. A. social one night and went to see her several times after that. She lived in a nice home and they seemed to be real nice people. She spoke English fairly well and when I couldn't make her understand by talking I would make motions. They are so different from the American girls. They don't wait for the boys to ask for a date, but they ask the boys to come and see them. The poorer class of people wear wooden shoes, and the better class wear wooden soles on their leather shoes. I didn't see a piece of candy in France except that we had on the ship. One of the cooks carried a girl a loaf of bread and she thought it was something wonderful. It was the white bread she had eaten in four years. The waste from the tables that the ship threw out in the garbage can would be picked out by little boys like John and T. P.

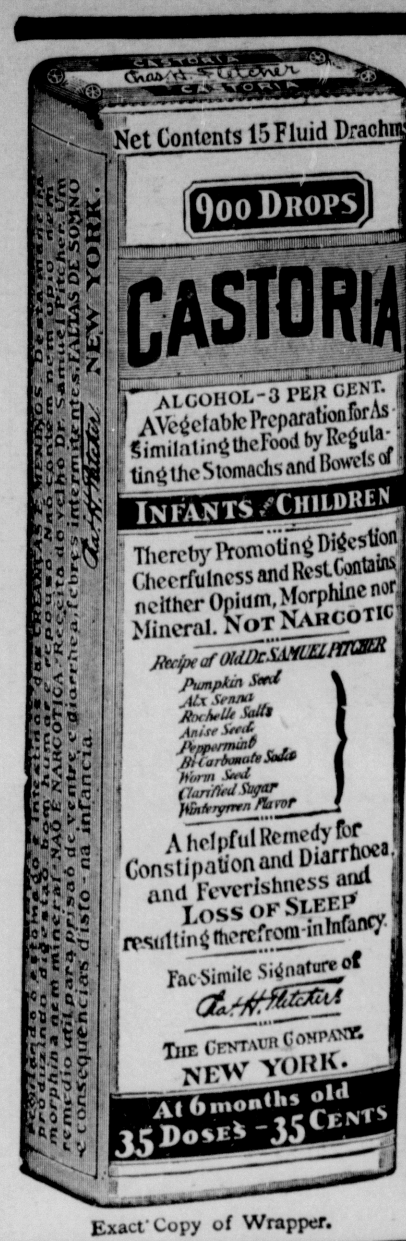

We have a pretty fair baseball team on the "Maui" and played five different games while in France and lost only one game. I am playing second base. One morning the ball team borrowed one of the big navy trucks they have over there and went out all over the surrounding country, we stayed out all day and surely had some swell time, although every one was tired out when we drove in late that afternoon. We went through several small villages where they had never seen an American sailor.

I saw John Reed a few minutes ago and he said for me to come up to his room at 6 p. m. and we would go to church. I haven't been inside of a church in three months, not over once or twice at least. John stays at the same pier that I do so I can see him at most any time. I surely do enjoy talking to him as we are both from "the only city." I received about 10 letters today and I have read them all three times. I have a few old letters and I read them about twice a week while I was out to sea. You said something in one of your letters about a piece in the paper that John Reed had sent. If you still have it I wish you would send it to me.

I surely am glad to hear the prospects are good for a crop, because the country certainly will need it before this war is brought to a close.

I was sorry to hear that you were not feeling well. I think that if you would join the navy you would get better. I know it has given me an awful appetite and I have gained 30 pounds since I enlisted. You know I always had a cold while at home, but I haven't had one since I left. All that is wrong with me now is a "taste for sweet things," but I guess that will be with me always. However, we seldom get anything sweet.

I would like to run across Harry since he is up in this part of the country. I have written him several times but have never received an answer. I hope he will get to "go over" as it is a wonderful trip and one I will never forget. Mamma, you asked me to think about making a trip home. Well, I do that real often but it doesn't do me much good. There isn't anything in the world I would

ITALIANS EXPECTING AUSTRIAN OFFENSIVE AT ANY TIME SOON

NOTED LECTURER ON TEMPERANCE ENDORSES TANLAC

Mrs. Martha Stone was for Years
Associated With Founder of W. C. T. U.

One of the features that distinguishes Tanlac from all other proprietary medicines is the large number of prominent people who everywhere are giving it their unqualified endorsement. Among the statements recently received at the Tanlac office is one in particular that is sure to arouse widespread interest throughout the country, having been made by Mrs. Martha R. Stone, of 7225 Third Avenue, northwest, Seattle, Wash., noted temperance lecturer who for many years was associated with the late Frances E. Willard, founder of the W. C. T. U. In relating her experience with Tanlac Mrs. Stone said:

"I think it is the duty of everyone who has been relieved as I have to do what they can to help others; therefore it gave me much pleasure to tell of the benefits I have derived from the use of Tanlac."

"I was a great sufferer for many years with nervous trouble, which became so bad that I had to take to my bed, where I lay for six weeks entirely helpless and unable to move. The least little noise would upset me and I was not allowed to see anyone for fear it would excite me, and I was told that my entire nervous system had suffered a total collapse. You see, I had passed through the great San Francisco fire in which I lost everything I possessed and the experience was a severe shock to my already overwrought nerves. When at last I was able to get out of bed I would have such awful dizzy spells that everything in my room seemed to spin around as though I was in the center of a whirlpool. My stomach was so weak and my appetite so poor that I hardly ate a thing, and what little I forced down soured and formed gas that passed up into my throat and in my chest and made me so hoarse that it was an effort for me to speak. I also suffered much pain the lower part of my body from tss same gas pressure. My liver, too, was all out of order and my kidneys gave me no end of trouble."

"When my son-in-law saw that the medicines I was taking were doing me no good, he induced me to try Tanlac, as he said it had done him so much good he believed it would help me, too. To oblige him I got me a bottle and the first few doses soon convinced me that it was just what I needed and my first bottle put me right on my feet. I am now on my second bottle and am in splendid shape, for my nerves are practically in a normal state for the first time in all these years, which I consider a remarkable thing. I have a fine appetite and can eat most anything I want without suffering any unpleasantness afterward. Tanlac is fast helping me to overcome my troubles, and I feel that I am getting on just fine ever since I began taking it."

GOOD RAIN FELL IN BRYAN AND GREATER PART BRAZOS COUNTY

From Monday's Daily Eagle
Starting at 12:30 o'clock Monday morning a steady much-needed rain fell in Bryan and the greater part of Brazos county. The downpour continued until 5 o'clock this morning, a period of four and a half hours. The precipitation in Bryan totaled two and one-half inches.

Millican and portions of the southern end of the county are reported to have had very little rain.

In some sections considerable wind accompanied the rainfall and corn is said to have been slightly damaged thereby. All in all, however, the rain came as a great blessing to corn and other crops.

Seven farmers stated to The Eagle that a good crop of corn is now a certainty. A telephone message from Milton Sims of the Steele's Store community, announced a fine rain in that section.

MOOHER! GIVE CHILD SYRUP OF FIGS IF TONGUE IS COATED

If cross, feverish, sick, bilious, clean little liver and bowels.

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty its bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach ache or diarrhea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

WAR STAMP MEETING THIS MORNING DREW ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD

From Monday's Daily Eagle
One of the largest and most patriotic meetings that has been held in Bryan during the war activities work was held this morning at 11 o'clock at Carnegie library. The house was taxed to its capacity with war stamp committees from all sections of Brazos county, from two to five committee-men being present from each school district.

E. H. Astin, chairman of the Brazos county war saving stamps campaign presided, with S. E. Eberstadt as secretary.

Chairman Astin went fully into every detail in connection with the coming war saving stamp campaign and called for expressions from those present with reference to the campaign.

Committeemen freely expressed themselves as to conditions in their various communities, but all were enthusiastic in their confidence that the community stood ready at all times to do its duty in helping to win the war. The meeting was truly a loyal and patriotic one and Chairman Astin expressed his great satisfaction over the splendid attendance. A motion picture was shown and a mass meeting was held in Bryan Monday June 24, which every committeeman is urged to attend and bring others from his community is possible.

Brazos county's quota is $379,000.

U. S. WANTS MORE RED CROSS NURSES AT AN EARLY DATE

(By Associated Press)
Dallas, June 4.—On account of the imperative need for more Red Cross nurses in France the dates for the one week enrollment campaign for 500 nurses have been advanced to the present week and will begin today, concluding June 20. Texas has been asked to furnish 600 of these nurses and Dallas has been headquarters for the state campaign.

Campaign committees will be formed wherever there are hospitals or enough nurses to justify the taking of this step. Realizing that some steps must be taken for furnishing civilian nurses after a large per cent of the trained nurses have entered the war service, plans have been started to enter a number of women in nurses training schools.

Application for enrollment should be made to the secretary of the nearest local committee on nursing service, to the divisional director or to the department of nursing of the American Red Cross society at Washington, D. C. To be eligible for enrollment as a regular Red Cross nurse a woman must be a graduate of a recognized school for nurses giving at least a two-year course of training in a general hospital and must be at least 21 years of age. Nurses are enlisted for the period of the war or as long as the emergency lasts.

Surgeons agree that in cases of cuts, burns, bruises and wounds, the first treatment is most important. When an efficient antiseptic is applied promptly there is no danger of infection and the wound begins to heal at once. For use on man or beast, borzox is the ideal antiseptic and healing agent. Buy it now and be ready for an emergency. Price 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $1.50. Sold by E. J. Jenkins.

NEGRO NURSES.

College Station, Tex., June 4.—In the hope of meeting the demand for trained nurses, a two-year course in nursing will be inaugurated at the Prairie View Normal and Industrial Institute at Prairie View, beginning next September, announces Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of A. and M. college. The course will be given under the direction of Dr. J. G. Osborne, who is a graduate of Bishop college and who has done graduate work in Leonard university and the University of Chicago, and who after serving an internship in one of the leading hospitals in Philadelphia, was in charge of the leading negro hospital in the county for two years. The course promises to be quite popular.

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver and you lose a day's work.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Doan's Liver Tonic—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can't salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Doan's Liver Tonic, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Doan's Liver Tonic instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Doan's Liver Tonic acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.—Adv.

COTTON MILL MAN GIVEN A HEARING BY VICK'S COMMITTEE

From Friday's Daily Eagle
John C. Vick, the new chairman of the city development committee of the business club, has already gotten busy on the cotton mill proposition to whom it was referred at the last meeting of the directors, and this morning got his committee together, listened to a talk by Prof. Bagley of the college textile department, and from R. M. Mauding, a cotton mill machinery man from Greenville, S. C. Both gentlemen answered a lot of questions that were propounded to them relative to the success of mills, how they pan out in towns, what makes them succeed and what makes them fail, what would be most suitable for Bryan and so on. The conclusion of the meeting was that there should be a further and deeper investigation, and if found feasible and practicable and with success reasonably probable, this committee shall call upon the monied interests of the town and county and put up to them the proposition of investing their liberty bonds in cotton mill stock.

The committee to go further into the matter is composed of Eugene Edge, E. J. Fountain, J. W. Batts and Ed Hall.

EDGE.

Edge, June 4.—We are rejoicing over the good rain which came in the nick of time. Corn and gardens were beginning to suffer on the hill land especially.

Raymond Henry has been called to the colors and was sent to Camp Cody, N. M.

Miss Mae Belle Moore is in Bryan hospital to be operated on for appendicitis.

Octavus K. Beard is home from A. and M. and will go to Galveston soon to work until school starts next fall.

Miss Mina Henry is home for a couple of weeks, then she goes to Michigan to normal.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Beard are rejoicing over a fine 8-pound baby girl.

Edge people are patriotic, alright. Quite a number of young men will cast their first vote and register too, in our community this year.

Miss Gladys Jones is spending a few days with Miss Ethel Payne.

Miss Ethel is just home from school at Huntsville.

Luther Boyd, who is in the aviation camp at Waco, writes he likes his work fine except looping the loops, then he is like Uncle Joe Negro, "gets a little bit frightened and the tears are smeared."

Our community canner is a good thing to be sure. We canned 577 3-pound cans snap beans one day last week. Those beans will be real good next winter.

TABOR.

Tabor, June 5.—The farmers are all smiles now as a big rain fell here Sunday night. It just did reach us in time to save the corn. Everything looks fine.

A number of young folks were enjoying a singing at Mr. and Mrs. Broach's Sunday night when the rain began. The jolly crowd sang awhile and then talked awhile and still the rain kept falling. About 3 o'clock it was decided that the guests would have to stay until daylight. Then our good Mrs. Broach began to plan how she might provide sleeping room for all. It was not long before she had prepared a comfortable place for each one. It was quite awhile, however, before anyone could sleep because of the talking and laughing going on in the different rooms. But finally almost everyone had a few minutes of sleep. Sometime before daylight boys and girls began to rise on every side. After having chatted awhile with one another the guests departed for home. It is a night long to be remembered by all who were present.

Miss Aline Elliott of Bryan is visiting her cousin, Miss Ray Elliott, of this community.

Miss Olive Moore from Edge is visiting Miss Ola Henry.

Mrs. Thomas is in the Bryan hospital, where she has recently undergone an operation. Her many friends are glad to learn that she is doing nicely.

One of our Red Cross workers, Mrs. Oscar Wilcox, has been ill for some time. She is greatly missed in the work room. We hope that she will soon be with us again.

SUMMER SESSION STARTS.

College Station, Tex., June 4.—With the registration for the summer session of A. and M. college complete the class work began this morning with the prospect of a very successful term. The registration in the college division and the rural life section is considerably above that of last year, the enrollment in the normal division shows a slight decrease and the cotton classing school attendance is about the same as a year ago. The normal division is under the direction of Prof. W. D. Motley, superintendent of the public school of Corpus Christi.

The farmers short course, a department of the summer session, will not begin until July 22 and continue for one week, while the farmers congress, which also lasts a week, will not begin until July 29.

LOCATING THE LONG RANGE GUNS BY USE HIGH MATHEMATICS

(By Associated Press)
New York, June 1.—Careful measurement of two holes made by a German shell in a Paris factory enabled French artillery officers to locate the German long range gun by a feat of mathematics, according to a member of the American labor mission arriving here. Applying the laws governing flight of projectiles the French are able to follow back the course of the shell and destroy the gun in a forest at St. Gobain.

NEGRO DRAFTED MAN HELD ON DESERTION CHARGE BY SHERIFF

Sheriff Nunn has placed in jail a negro drafted man by the name of Jack Odom. Odom had registered, filled out his questionnaire, been examined and accepted, made no claim for exemption and had received all the calls of the local exemption board except that inducting him into the active service. He failed to respond to the call whereby a contingent of negroes were sent to Camp Travis on April 29 and his family, who called on the local board this morning, stated that he did not receive the call. It was reported to the board that he was dodging the draft and when he heard that he was wanted he left for other parts of the bottom, eventually landing at his mother's place away off from nowhere. He was first employed on the Milton Sims place. Officers kept track of him and the next thing heard of him was a charge of desertion. Having been accepted by the board he is regarded as being as much in the army as if he was actually in training. In short, he is practically on furlough until called for induction into the training camp. His case seems to have now gotten beyond the jurisdiction of the local authorities and rests with the army officers.

BERGER BELIEVES CITY IS IN NEED OF PUBLIC TOILET

In conversation with City Commissioner H. A. Burger relative to the public toilet question, discussion of which has been reopened by the entertainment committee of the Commercial club, that gentleman expressed himself as being heartily in favor of at least one public toilet, centrally located. He believes we owe this to the farmers of the county and other visitors to the city, as well as the soldiers boys, of whom we now have upwards of 2000.

Mr. Burger suggests the erection of a substantial, permanent, thoroughly sanitary building at the corner of Twenty-fifth street and the H. and T. C. crossing, opposite the D. D. White garage. This property belongs to the city and it is Mr. Burger's idea to erect a neat structure, put a dependable colored man in charge and also place the building under police supervision.

The Commercial club, through its entertainment committee, of which George A. Adams is chairman, will likely bring the matter before the city commission officially in the near future.

It is generally recognized that this step is a necessary one, and a matter that should not be postponed.

DASHIEL GOES OVER THE FERGUSON RECORD

Hon. L. H. Dashiell, one of the finest speakers in Texas, delivered an address at the courthouse last night in opposition to the alleged candidacy of James E. Ferguson for the position of governor of Texas. He went over the public record of Ferguson as governor, showed that he is a convict under the constitution of the state, having been indicted by the house of representatives, tried by the senate and convicted—convicted by his friends. Had eight of the well known Ferguson men thought more of Ferguson than they did of their manhood and their oaths, he said, they would have cleared him and he would not stand as a convict before the people of Texas. They convicted him because under the law and the evidence and their oaths they could do nothing else. Ferguson, hence, could not hold the office were he to receive a majority of the votes.

The latter part of his address was devoted to Governor Hobby.

Senator J. R. Astin introduced Mr. Dashiell in a few well-chosen words.

LAYS EGGS LIKE GOARDS.

George B. Shaw, who puts out the germ-proof hamburgers, has a hen that is making a reputation for herself on original lines, also. This hen lays eggs and every egg she lays has the shape of a small green pear or baby Hubbard squash or gourd—anything with a long neck and bulbous body. It is the only kind of egg she lays. Mrs. Shaw, who claims the hens and the hennessy, has never set any of these eggs, hence does not know whether the product would be an airplane or an African war club.

HOSTESS HOUSE FOR SOLDIERS' COMFORT TO OPEN SATURDAY

A hostess house for the benefit of all soldiers who are now stationed here or may be sent here later, is being established in the Wagner building by St. Andrew's Episcopal church. Mr. Wagner has given the use of the building free to the church, members of the church are providing furniture and are seeking the loan of pieces of furniture from others. They want a lot of chairs, sofas, lounges, tables, writing materials and the like, and they hope to install billiard and pooltables, pianos, talking machines with plenty of records, magazines, newspapers and periodicals and whatever may be homelike. Rev. H. B. Jamison is very busy rounding up the materials for the rooms, the opening of which he has set for Saturday at 1 o'clock. He asks that it be made plain that the hostess house will be for the free use of any enlisted men of whatever church or creed, and that it is not in any sense of the word assigned for the entertainment and convenience of Episcopalians. Any man in uniform will be welcome.

Hostess houses have been established in practically every city where there has been a congregation of soldiers. The purpose is to provide, as nearly as may be possible, the elements of home surroundings with the presence of good women, and opportunities to sing and play, read or play games, smoke and chat or do any of those things any decent man does ordinarily in his own home. It provides a place to go when there is no other place to go. It provides a place of rendezvous for the men, where they can meet with reasonable confidence expect to meet their fellows. It is expected that this hostess house will be open during the free hours of the soldiers' except Sunday mornings.

The Wagner building lends itself well to this purpose. The lower floor opens right from the street, has three broad openings while there are two floors above that give wonderful opportunity for the escape of the warm air. There is plenty of light and as the room will probably be open on Saturday and Sunday nights it will be furnished with electric lights.

Ladies of the church were on hand this morning attending to the cleaning of the place, washing the windows and making arrangements for the opening Saturday.

PUBLIC TOILETS A NECESSITY, THINK CLUB COMMITTEEMEN

From Tuesday's Daily Eagle
The entertainment committee of the Commercial club met at the club rooms last night and perfected organization for the year's work. All members were present except John A. Moore, who is absent from the city.

The question of providing amusements for the soldiers at College Station was gone into thoroughly and it was decided to leave this matter open for joint consideration with other local organizations also having this matter in hand.

One important suggestion the entertainment committee will bring before the Commercial club and later the city commissioners is that of providing public toilets for soldiers and other visitors to Bryan. In this respect present local conditions are very bad, and the committee hopes to arouse sentiment in favor of permanent solution of the public toilet question, both for sanitary and business reasons.

FOUND HIS BROTHER AMONG THE DEAD HE WAS BURYING

(By Associated Press)
With American Army in France, June 1.—A most pathetic incident occurred yesterday in a cemetery in the Picardy sector when an American soldier, acting as a pallbearer at a funeral of several Americans, discovered his own brother among the dead. The brothers were members of different companies and the soldier did not know his brother was dead.

AGRICULTURAL CONDITIONS IN TEXAS GREATLY IMPROVED

(By Associated Press)
Dallas, June 4.—Improved conditions during the last month were reported from practically all of the agricultural sections of the eleventh federal reserve district, according to the monthly summary of conditions issued by the Federal Reserve bank of Dallas today. There also were improved reports from the cattle country, where conditions have been bad for months, and an unusually heavy retail trade especially in summer merchandise. The large oversubscription to the Red Cross campaign, the report stated, testified to the patriotism of the people of the district.

Manufacturing enterprises report that previous capacities are being maintained and factories are restricted only through the inability to secure sufficient labor. Wholesale trade was satisfactory considering uncertain conditions prevailing. Business in commodities such as farm implements, seeds and harvesting supplies has been unusually large since the rains.

Especially credit was due the district for its 40 per cent oversubscription on the third liberty loan because of the fact that it occurred during the borrowing season in the banks when deposits always show a decline. Approximately $4,500,000 of the special government fund of $5,000,000 for drought relief has been distributed and been of great benefit in relieving conditions.

The cattle business has taken on new life, with improved range conditions in the west and southwest and the present outlook is more encouraging than for years.

Postoffice receipts show an increase of 60.1 per cent for the month of April over the same month in 1917, the largest increase reported in several months.

MOREHEAD HAS NOT WITHDRAWN.

Through some accident in the mechanical department, the name of Leonard Morehead, candidate for sheriff, was dropped from the announcement column in yesterday's Eagle. Some of his friends noticed the omission of Mr. Morehead's name and at once jumped to the conclusion he had withdrawn from the race. This is not a fact by any means and Mr. Morehead asks us to state that he is in the race to stay and that he has strong, well-grounded hopes of being returned as the Democratic nominee for sheriff of Brazos county.

SCHOOL TEACHERS QUITTING.

(By Associated Press)
Austin, May 31.—Reports reaching the state department of public instruction are that large numbers of teachers are leaving the schools to enter the military service or to engage in more lucrative positions.

"Unless something is done to relieve the situation," declares State Superintendent Doughty, "the places of many trained and experienced teachers will have to be taken by young teachers without experience or training."

In this connection Superintendent Doughty urges school trustees throughout the state and friends of education generally to give prompt consideration to the situation. Doughty said he favors a general increase in salaries now paid teachers and superintendents as a means of offsetting the losses.

"OVER THE TOP"

More than seventy-five hundred of our own American boys in khaki appear in "Over the Top," the great American drama of the screen, starring Sergeant Arthur Guy Empey, himself, soldier-author-patriot.

The United States war department, in recognition of the patriotic nature of "Over the Top" and the service rendered by Sergeant Empey to his country, granted Albert E. Smith, president of the Vitagraph company, the privilege of filming the great trench scenes of "Over the Top" at the regular army cantonment, Camp Wheeler, Macon, Ga. Seventy-five hundred regulars appear under the command of Empey in this master production.

It is estimated that 3,000,000 Americans have read Sergeant Empey's book, "Over the Top," the most popular literary masterpiece dealing with the war, and over 25,000,000 are reading his special articles appearing in newspapers throughout the country. Empey is today the most talked of man in America.

BOY INMATES OF THE COUNTY JAIL ELUDED SHERIFF AND ESCAPED

From Monday's Daily Eagle
Elsie Jones and Harry McKeefer, two youthful inmates of the county jail, outguessed Sheriff T. C. Nunn yesterday and are enjoying sweet liberty for the time being, at least.

While engaged in the usual Sunday morning clean-up of the premises, the boys crawled through a scuttle hole leading to the kitchen and thus made their getaway. At noon today they had not been apprehended.

Jones is charged with defaulting with money belonging to the Western Union Telegraph company, while McKeefer is accused of the theft of money from a store in the southern part of the county. The latter, it is stated, has already served two terms in the state reformatory.
